The Portimão Motor Park is hosting the International GT Open championship second round for the fifth consecutive year next weekend. Sixty drivers representing 30 teams featuring the likes of Ferrari, Porsche, Aston Martin and McLaren will compete in the SuperGT and GTS categories while local support should focus on the Chevrolet Corvette of Miguel Ramos, the only Portuguese pilot in action. Tickets for the May 10, 11 and 12 race days are available from the on-track shop priced from €5.
